

How to access test scores from College Board

Step 1: Log into your account at www.collegeboard.org

The screenshot shows the College Board homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the College Board logo and links for SAT, PSAT/NMSQT, AP, College Search, Professionals, and More. A search bar is located on the right. Below the navigation bar, there is an alert box that reads: "Alert: Most May SAT Scores are now available. View your scores now." Below the alert, there are navigation links for About Us, Advocacy, Membership, News & Press, and Research. On the left side, there is a login form with fields for Username and Password, and buttons for Sign In and Sign Up. A link for "Forgot username or password?" is also present. On the right side, there is a large banner for "2016 AP EXAM SCORES" with two circular icons: one showing a laptop and mouse, and the other showing a head with gears.

Step 2: Click on the Alert Link or MY SAT

The screenshot shows the College Board 'For Students' page. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the College Board logo and links for SAT, PSAT/NMSQT, AP, College Search, Professionals, and More. Below the navigation bar, there is an alert box that reads: "Alert: Most May SAT Scores are now available. View your scores now." Below the alert, there is a large heading "For Students". On the left side, there is a sidebar titled "My Organizer" with links for My SAT, PSAT/NMSQT, PSAT 10 and PSAT 8/9 Scores, AP Scores, My Plan, My Colleges, Account Settings, and Sign Out. The "My SAT" link is highlighted with a red box. On the right side, there are three main sections: "Advanced Placement" with a link "Get Ready for Your AP Exams", "SAT" with a link "Send Your SAT Scores", and "SAT Subject Tests". At the bottom right, there is a "Student Tools" section with a link for "Student Search Service®".

Step 3: If you clicked on the Alert Link, click on “View Details”

The screenshot shows the CollegeBoard dashboard for a user. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for CollegeBoard, SAT, PSAT/NMSQT, AP, College Search, Professionals, and More. A search bar and a user profile icon are also present. Below the navigation bar, there is a 'Dashboard' section with links for 'AP Potential' and 'Popular Tools'. The main content area displays a welcome message and the user's most recent SAT score for March 5, 2016, at the 12th grade level. The scores are: Total Score 810, Evidence-Based Reading and Writing 380, and Math 430. A blue button labeled 'View Details' is highlighted with a red box. To the right of the scores, there are four action buttons: 'Make a College Plan', 'Search for Colleges', 'Register for SAT', and 'Practice for SAT on Khan Academy®'. Below the scores, there is a section titled 'College: How to get there' with a brief description and a link to 'Make a plan'.

Step 3a: If you clicked on My SAT, scroll down to “My Test Scores” and click on “See Them Now”

My Test Scores

The screenshot shows the 'My Test Scores' section. At the top, there is a teal banner with the text 'Your SAT and Subject Test scores are now available in updated format on a brand new site!' and a red-bordered button labeled 'See Them Now' with a right-pointing arrow. Below the banner, there is a table displaying the test scores for March 5, 2016. The table has four columns: 'SAT', 'Total Score', 'Evidence-Based Reading & Writing', and 'Math'. The scores are: SAT (March 5, 2016), Total Score 810, Evidence-Based Reading & Writing 380, and Math 430. Below the table, there is a link 'Understand Your Test Performance and See Sent Scores | Order Score Verification'. At the bottom right, there is a blue button labeled 'Send Available Scores Now' with a right-pointing arrow.

Step 3b: Click on “View Details”

This screenshot is identical to the one in Step 3, showing the CollegeBoard dashboard with the 'View Details' button highlighted with a red box.

Step 4: Click on "Download Report" – This will provide ALL SIX test scores

How Did I Score Compared to Others?
A percentile is a number between 1 and 99 that shows how your score ranks compared to other students. It represents the percentage of students whose scores are equal to or below yours. For example, if your Math score percentile is 57 that means 57 percent of test-takers have Math scores equal to or below yours. You'll see two percentiles:
